

Tampa Bay Business Journal - February 19, 2007
<http://tampabay.bizjournals.com/tampabay/stories/2007/02/19/daily2.html>

BUSINESS PULSE SURVEY: Office romance: How does your workplace handle it?

Forbes: Florida a haven for jobs

Tampa Bay Business Journal - 11:29 AM EST Monday, February 19, 2007

Six Florida cities are rated in the top 25 cities in the country for jobs, according to a report in Forbes.

Jacksonville had the highest rating in the state, moving into third place, from eight place last year.

For the second straight year, Forbes has listed the Orlando-Kissimmee metropolitan area the fourth-best city in the country for jobs.

Other Florida metropolitan areas that made the top 25 included Fort Lauderdale (9th, up from 25th), Sarasota-Bradenton (11th, up from 26th), Tampa/St. Petersburg (13th, up from 29th) and West Palm Beach (16th, up from 37th).

Raleigh-Cary, N.C., occupied the top spot, followed by Phoenix, Ariz.

Contact the Editor Need Assistance? More Latest News →

Subscribe or renew online

---

All contents of this site © American City Business Journals Inc. All rights reserved.